FUNDRAISING and MARKETING Manager
The Women’s Environmental Institute (WEI) is an environmental research, renewal and retreat center designed to create and share knowledge about environmental issues and policies relevant to women, children and identified communities affected by environmental injustice; to promote agricultural justice, organic and sustainable agriculture, and ecological awareness; and to support activism that influences public policy and promotes social change.

Our mission brings together agricultural, food and environmental justice, one community at a time: one farm at a time, one person at a time and all of us together.

The Women’s Environmental Institute is looking for part-time Fundraiser and Marketing professional experienced in fundraising, corporate giving, marketing, and advertising for nonprofit programing. This is a short-term position, however pending funds, could develop into a long-term position.

This position may also work with the Executive Administrator to develop social media content, personal contacts, and other means to expand the WEI mission and markets.

Search dates: from October 22- Nov. 15, or until filled
Part-time only
Pay rate: negotiable depending on applicant’s experience, expertise and a deep understanding of our mission and programs

Applications are now open. Go to w-e-i.org homepage for access to application form.

Send electronically in the application form: letter of interest (explain why you are qualified for this job), your resume, 3 work-related references, samples of your success. Questions: contact Search Committee Chair susanpatterson84@gmail.com

The Women’s Environmental Institute is committed to the policy that all persons have equal access to its programs, facilities, and employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, gender, age, sexuality, marital status, disability, public assistance, and/or veteran status. WEI is a 501(c)3 and Chisago County Charity organization with a mission of environmental, food and farming justice, in both rural and urban programming.